without limits.....

Melbourne, Australia 11-14 July 2010

PRESS RELEASE

MOODLEMOOT HEADS TO MELBOURNE IN JULY 2010

Melbourne, VIC, 11th of February 2010, Moodlemoot AU 2010 invites educational practitioners, managers and technologists from across Australia to participate in a hands-on Moodle Community conference in Melbourne, 11 – 14 July 2010.

Confirmed keynote speakers include Martin Dougiamas, Curtis Bonk, Helen Carter and David Parkin.

The four day conference will be packed with thought provoking keynotes and engaging workshops whilst offering the chance to meet and learn from fellow Moodle users. Delegates are expected to attend from the University, Schooling, VET and Corporate sectors.

Addressing the 'without limits...' theme, Moodlemoot AU 2010 will provide opportunities to learn and share as part of the Moodle community with a focus on core themes including:

- Teaching & Learning with Moodle
- Educational Research
- LMS Administration & Support
- Software Development & Integration
- Management & Governance
- Moving to Moodle
- Complementary Learning Tools
- The Moodle Community & Philosophy
- Future Directions and New Ideas (including Moodle 2.0).

"Moodlemoot AU 2010 will be the largest educational conference in the Australasian region in 2010," says Allan Christie, Managing Director at NetSpot Pty Ltd. "It will bring together the Australian Moodle community, including teachers, developers and administrators to learn from each other and advance the e-learning agenda."

The conference will be held at the newly built Melbourne Convention Centre, a state of the art facility decked out in Moodle's own signature orange.

Early Bird registrations will open next month. To be one of the first to know when registrations become available, please register your interest here.
